

Happy Holidays

Humanity, Plaintiff

v.

COVID-19, Defendant

Kramer, Elkins & Watt, LLC, Intervenor

MOTION BY KRAMER, ELKINS & WATT, LLC (“KEW”) TO SEND HOLIDAY GREETING

KEW hereby moves to the Ghost of Holiday Future to present a holiday message to its clients and contacts (the “KEWmmunity”) that is COVID-neutral in that it takes no position on some of the more pressing issues of this year such as: 1) whether your hand sanitizer scent can replace your perfume, cologne, deodorant or bodily aroma materials of choice; 2) the best pairing of sweatpants and business appropriate tops for video conference meetings; 3) whether forcing lawyers to use video conferencing has produced any benefit to the world other than the “I am not a cat” meme; but rather provides the KEWmmunity with the following sentiment, “KEW wished me an appropriate seasonal greeting.”

Based on the foregoing, KEW hereby moves to send the following message to the KEWmmunity:

“Have (a) Happy and Healthy Holiday(s).”
